Study Leave is Coming...

Best wishes to everyone for study leave.

Just a reminder if you are coming on to site for an exam, or just to meet a teacher or do a revision class, you must be in full dress code including your ID tag.

Just to remind you we will expect everyone (accepted accelerated Maths people) to be back on Monday 14th June for all their subjects. All decisions about dropping subjects will be taken after the AS results come out in August, until then you will go to all your lessons as usual.

Senior Prefect Applications

Thank you to all the students who have applied for the post of Senior Prefect.

The calibre of applicant was really high this year and we are really sorry if you were unsuccessful on this occasion.

If you were successful, interviews will take place period 1 and 2 in the common room

EMA

If you have received your EMA Agreement, bring it to the Sixth Form Office asap. We will also need our in-house agreement signed by you and your parents – this can be found on MLE or in our office.

We have now received forms from LBR which enable you to get more money from them if you live in Redbridge AND get EMA. Please come to get one from us if you haven't applied for it this year.

ID Badges

These must be worn at all times

If you do not have it on you, you will be sent home to get it.

Lanyards are available in the sixth form office and cost £2 each.

Open Days

There are lots of open days coming up in the next Month. If you have not been on a university open day yet I would strongly encourage you to do so before the end of the year. It will help you refine your idea of what you are looking for from a course and university.

Remember you need to fill in a green form and get permission from the teachers whose lessons you are missing before you go.

To find out more about universities go to www.unistats.com as well as the Times and Guardian League Tables (links on MLE)
