Asylum and Immigration Act 1996 and Immigration (Restriction on Employment) Order 2004

Under the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996 employers are required by law to see original evidence of proof of entitlement to work before taking on a new employee.

New regulations came into force on 1 May 2004 regarding what documents are required before employment can begin. The relevant documents are listed in the Immigration (Restriction on Employment) Order 2004.

If you are unable to produce one of the documents listed under Part 1* of the attached schedule Descriptions of documents for the purposes of article 4(2)(a), then you must produce two documents as stated under Part 2* of the attached schedule Descriptions of documents for the purposes of article 4(2)(b).

If you provide documents listed under Part 2* then these must consist of one document from 1(a) and one document from 1(b)(i) to (vii) or the document described in 2(a) and one document listed in 2(b)(i) to (ii). If the two documents that you produce show different names then you must also produce a document explaining the difference.

Please note that applicants who produce documents listed under Part 1* of the Schedule or Part 2* section 2(a) and (b) will still be required to provide proof of their National Insurance number; this is required by the Council's Payroll function for Benefits Agency and Inland Revenue purposes.

Under the Immigration (Restriction on Employment) Order 2004, it is a requirement that the employer must have satisfied himself that each document produced appears to relate to the employee in question. If you choose to post your documents or arrange for someone else to produce these on your behalf, we will have to make further enquiries to confirm your identity.
